

HAVRE DE GRACE

HARFORD COUNTY

Incorporated as a town in 1785 and once under consideration to be the Capital of the United States by the U.S. Congress, Havre de Grace is rich in history and tradition.

★ Havre de Grace, Maryland ★

SITUATED ON THE BANKS OF THE SUSQUEHANNA RIVER, THE TOWN IS KNOWN FAR AND WIDE FOR BEING A THRIVING COMMERCIAL PORT AND HAVING EXCELLENT FISHING, WATERFOWL HUNTING AND DECOY CARVING.

Havre de Grace has maintained its small town charm while being closely located and accessible to the major cultural and business centers of the Mid-Atlantic region.

Havre de Grace offers the authentic Chesapeake Bay experience and pleasant way of life on the water's edge. Enjoy the Bay while fishing, boating, bird watching or strolling the boardwalk promenade along the pristine Susquehanna River. Discover quaint downtown shopping and many historic attractions such as the Concord Point Lighthouse or retreat to the comfort of one of the fine inns or the relaxing day spa.

Havre de Grace is also home to the Duck Decoy Museum, which tells the story of the town's rich heritage of waterfowl carving and hunting. The Concord Point Lighthouse, the town's most well-known landmark, has served as a beacon for visitors since 1827. As you stroll along the town's waterfront boardwalk promenade be sure to visit The Maritime Museum, devoted to celebrating boat building and the Watermen's way of life.

Elegant inns, restaurants, cafés, antique shops and galleries keep downtown Havre de Grace vibrant with activity. Havre de Grace is also home to Bulle Rock, one of the few 5-star rated golf facilities in the country. Bulle Rock now proudly hosts the McDonald's LPGA Championship presented by Coca-Cola, one of four majors on the ladies' professional tour.

Whether you come to do business, play or live, you can experience the amenities of small town life in one of the most beautiful maritime settings in the country. So take your time and discover all the town has to offer. With over 200 special events there is always something happening in Havre de Grace.
